

Crispy Potato Latkes

Cook's Illustrated

Submitted by Elizabeth Mandel

Ingredients

- 2 lbs russet potatoes, unpeeled and scrubbed (or peeled), shredded in food processor
- 1/2 cup grated onion (I use a combo of scallion and yellow onion)
- salt and pepper
- 2 large eggs, lightly beaten
- 2 Tsp (or more) minced fresh parsley
- vegetable oil

Directions

1. Adjust oven rack to middle position, place rimmed baking sheet on rack, and heat oven to 200 degrees. (This will be to keep latkes warm after cooking)
2. Toss potatoes, onion, and 1 tsp salt in bowl. Place half of potato mixture in center of dish towel. Gather ends together and twist tightly to drain as much liquid as possible, reserving liquid in glass measuring cup. Transfer drained potato mixture to second bowl and repeat process with remaining potato mixture. Set potato liquid aside and let stand so starch settles to bottom, at least 5 minutes.
3. Cover potato mixture and microwave until just warmed through but not hot, 1-2 minutes, stirring mixture with fork every 30 seconds. Spread potato mixture evenly over second rimmed baking sheet and let cool for 10 minutes. Don't wash out bowl.
4. Pour off water from reserved potato liquid, leaving potato starch in measuring cup. Add eggs and stir until smooth. Return cooled potato mixture to bowl. Add parsley, 1/4 tsp pepper, and potato starch mixture and toss until evenly combined.

5. Set wire rack in clean rimmed baking sheet and line with triple layer of paper towels.
6. Heat 1/4" depth of oil in 12" skillet over medium-high heat until shimmering but not smoking (350 degrees). Place 1/4 cup mound of potato mixture in oil and press with nonstick spatula into 1/3" thick disk. Repeat until 5 latkes are in pan. Cook, adjusting heat so fat bubbles around latke edges, until golden brown on bottom, about 3 minutes. Turn and continue cooking until golden brown on second side, about 3 minutes longer.
7. Drain on paper towels and transfer to baking sheet in oven. Repeat with remaining potato mixture, adding oil to maintain 1/4" depth and returning oil to 350 degrees between batches.
8. Season with salt and pepper to taste, and serve immediately with applesauce or sour cream.

To Make Ahead: Cooled latkes can be covered loosely with plastic wrap and held at room temperature for up to 4 hours. Alternatively, they can be frozen on baking sheet until firm, transferred to zip-lock bag, and frozen for up to 1 month. Reheat latkes in 375 degree oven until crisp and hot, 3 minutes per side for room temperature latkes and 6 minutes per side for frozen latkes.
