Panel discussion: Surviving the Pandemic – Student, Parent, Teacher, Admin Perspectives

Welcome to our first “in person” AAUW-MH Program of 2021 in conjunction with Morgan Hill's Women's Week: a panel discussion with parents, students, teachers, and administrators, sharing, and discussing experiences with the virtual education process during the pandemic.

The panel includes Dr. Carmen Garcia, our new MHUSD Superintendent, Nancy Altman, newly retired Assistant Principal at Britton Middle School & AAUW member, Krisse Boursier, newly retired Live Oak High School teacher & AAUW member, Young Woman Leader Ria Deshpande, Heather Geddes, Morgan Hill Community Librarian, and parents and students.

Date and Time: Tuesday, August 24, (7 - 9 PM)

Venue: MH Community and Cultural Center (Monterey Rd).

If you cannot attend, we plan to broadcast via Zoom and Facebook live and add a recording on our website.
