

Piano: An All Woman Show

Piano: An All-Woman Show

Celebrate Women's History Month with a program of 250 years of piano music by women composers presented by Brianna Conrey

Sunday, March 19, 2 pm at the home of branch member Jan Conrey

Members and guests only, limited seating, RSVPs required by March 12.
Contact Carol O'Hare for details.

The program will include music from composers Elisabeth Claude Jacquet de la Guerre (1665-1729), Fanny Mendelssohn-Hensel (1805-1847), Lili Boulanger (1893-1918), and Florence Price (1887-1953), as well as several others.

Refreshments will be served.

Brianna Conrey began the study of piano at the age of seven. She was a quarter-finalist at the 2016 Cliburn International Amateur Piano Competition. She is known for her elegantly expressive style, warm and inviting stage presence, and world-class musicianship. She calls "Piano-An All Woman Show" her pandemic project. She currently works at the American Institute of Mathematics (AIM) as Director of Special Projects.
