

Textures of Terror

The Murder of Claudina Isabel Velasquez and Her Father's Quest for Justice

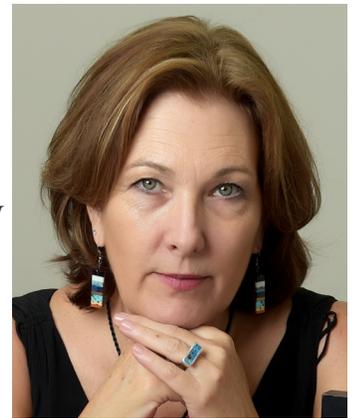

A discussion with the author

Wednesday, November 1, 7:00 pm. The Granary, 17500 Depot Street
Free and open to the public. No RSVP required.

Investigating the unsolved murder of a female law student and the pervasive violence against Guatemalan women that drives migration.

Author Victoria Sanford is a John Simon Guggenheim Fellow and Professor of Anthropology, City University of New York. She has given expert testimony on the Guatemalan genocide in international courts and authored seven books, including Buried Secrets: Truth and Human Rights in Guatemala.

“Victoria Sanford brilliantly unravels complex and widespread gender-based violence in Guatemala and how the very institutions created to combat it perpetuate violence and impunity. Above all, she tells the love story of a father’s ceaseless quest for justice for the murder of his beloved daughter” - Kery Kennedy, President of Robert F Kennedy Human Rights

Brought to you by the Morgan Hill branch of AAUW.
Questions?
Contact Janet McElroy at dei@aauwmh.org

